

You can't go back . . .

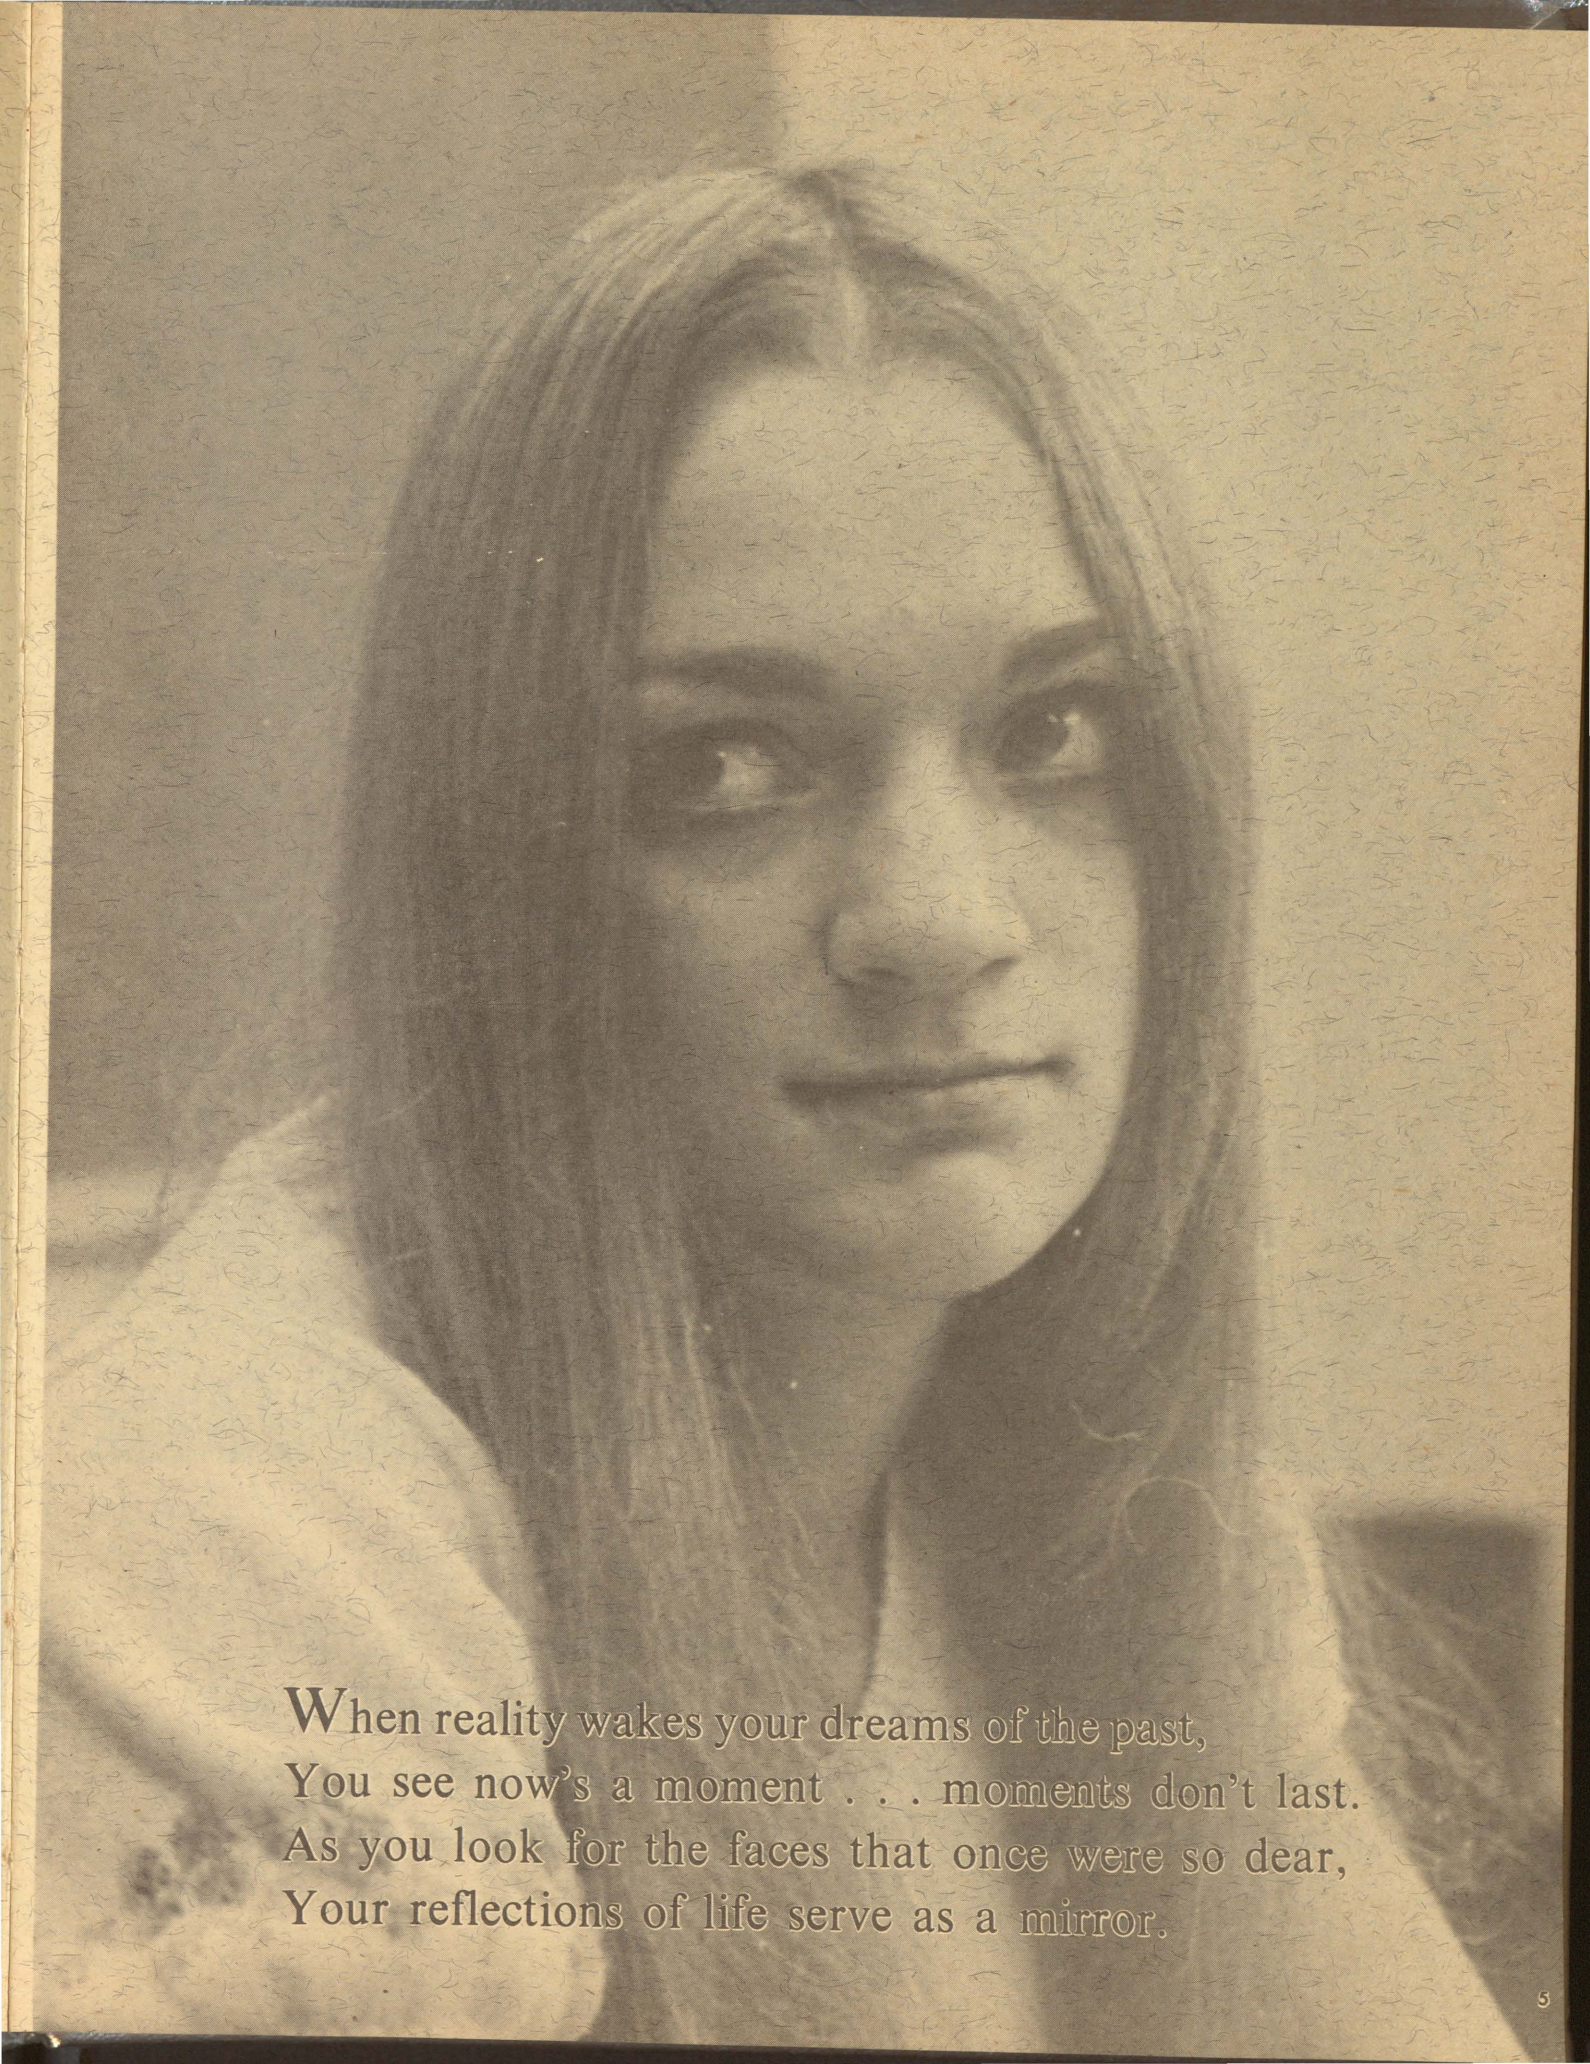

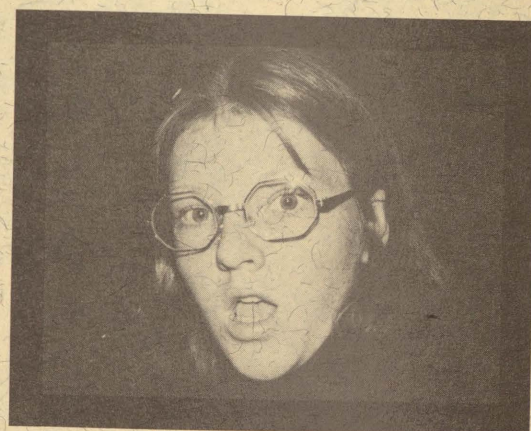

Oh well, you can't go back to yesterday
Oh no you can't go back in any shape or way.
You can't stop time . . . so don't even try,
Make the most of the moment, then step to the side.

You can go to the place where it all began,
The place where a boy learned to be a man.
You can walk the path that you used to know,
Close your eyes and watch the memories flow.

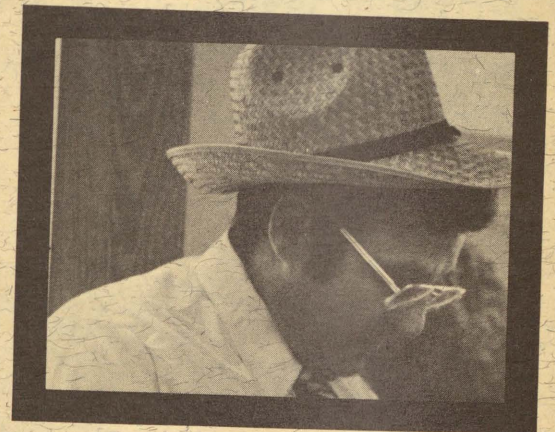

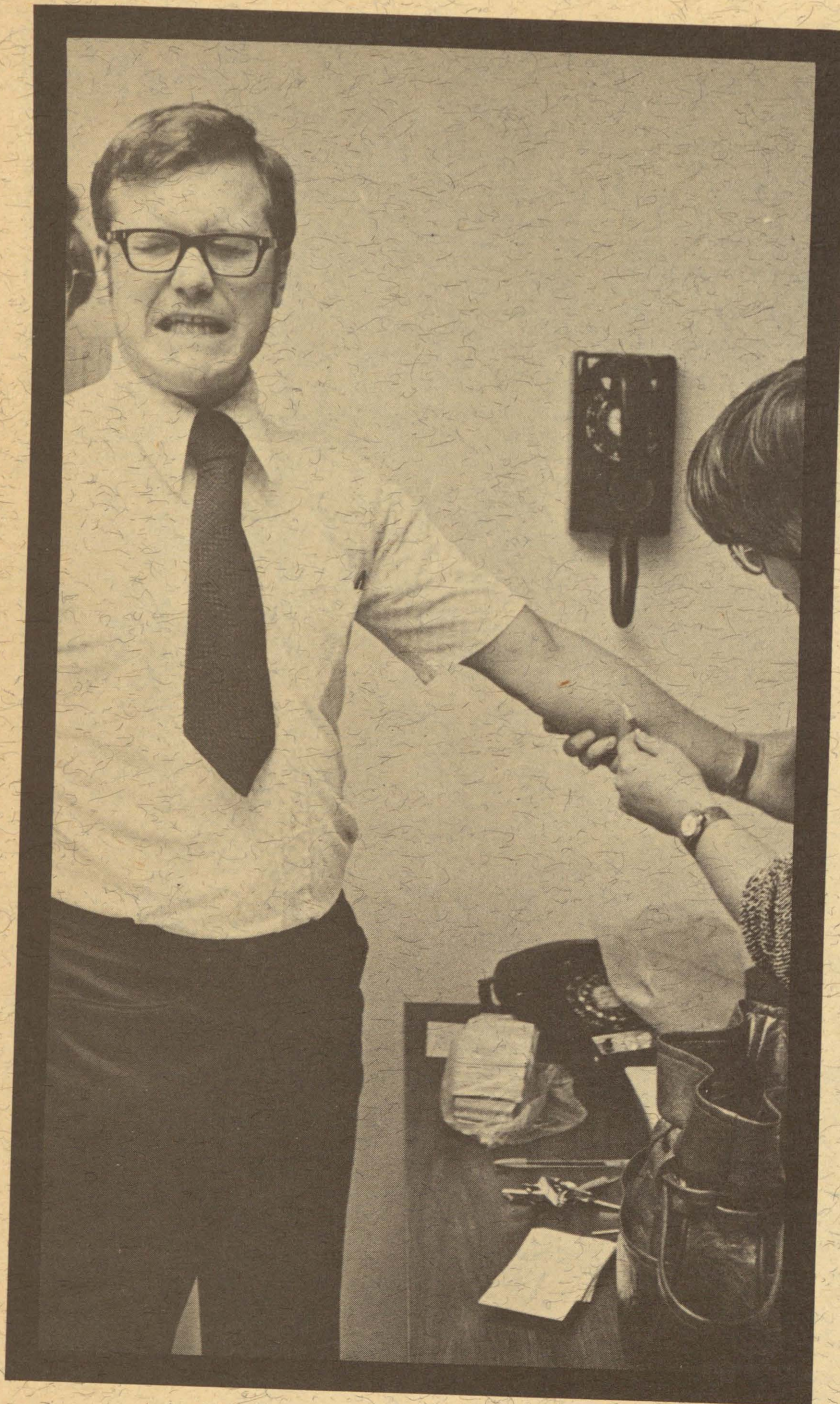

When reality wakes your dreams of the past,
You see now's a moment . . . moments don't last.
As you look for the faces that once were so dear,
Your reflections of life serve as a mirror.

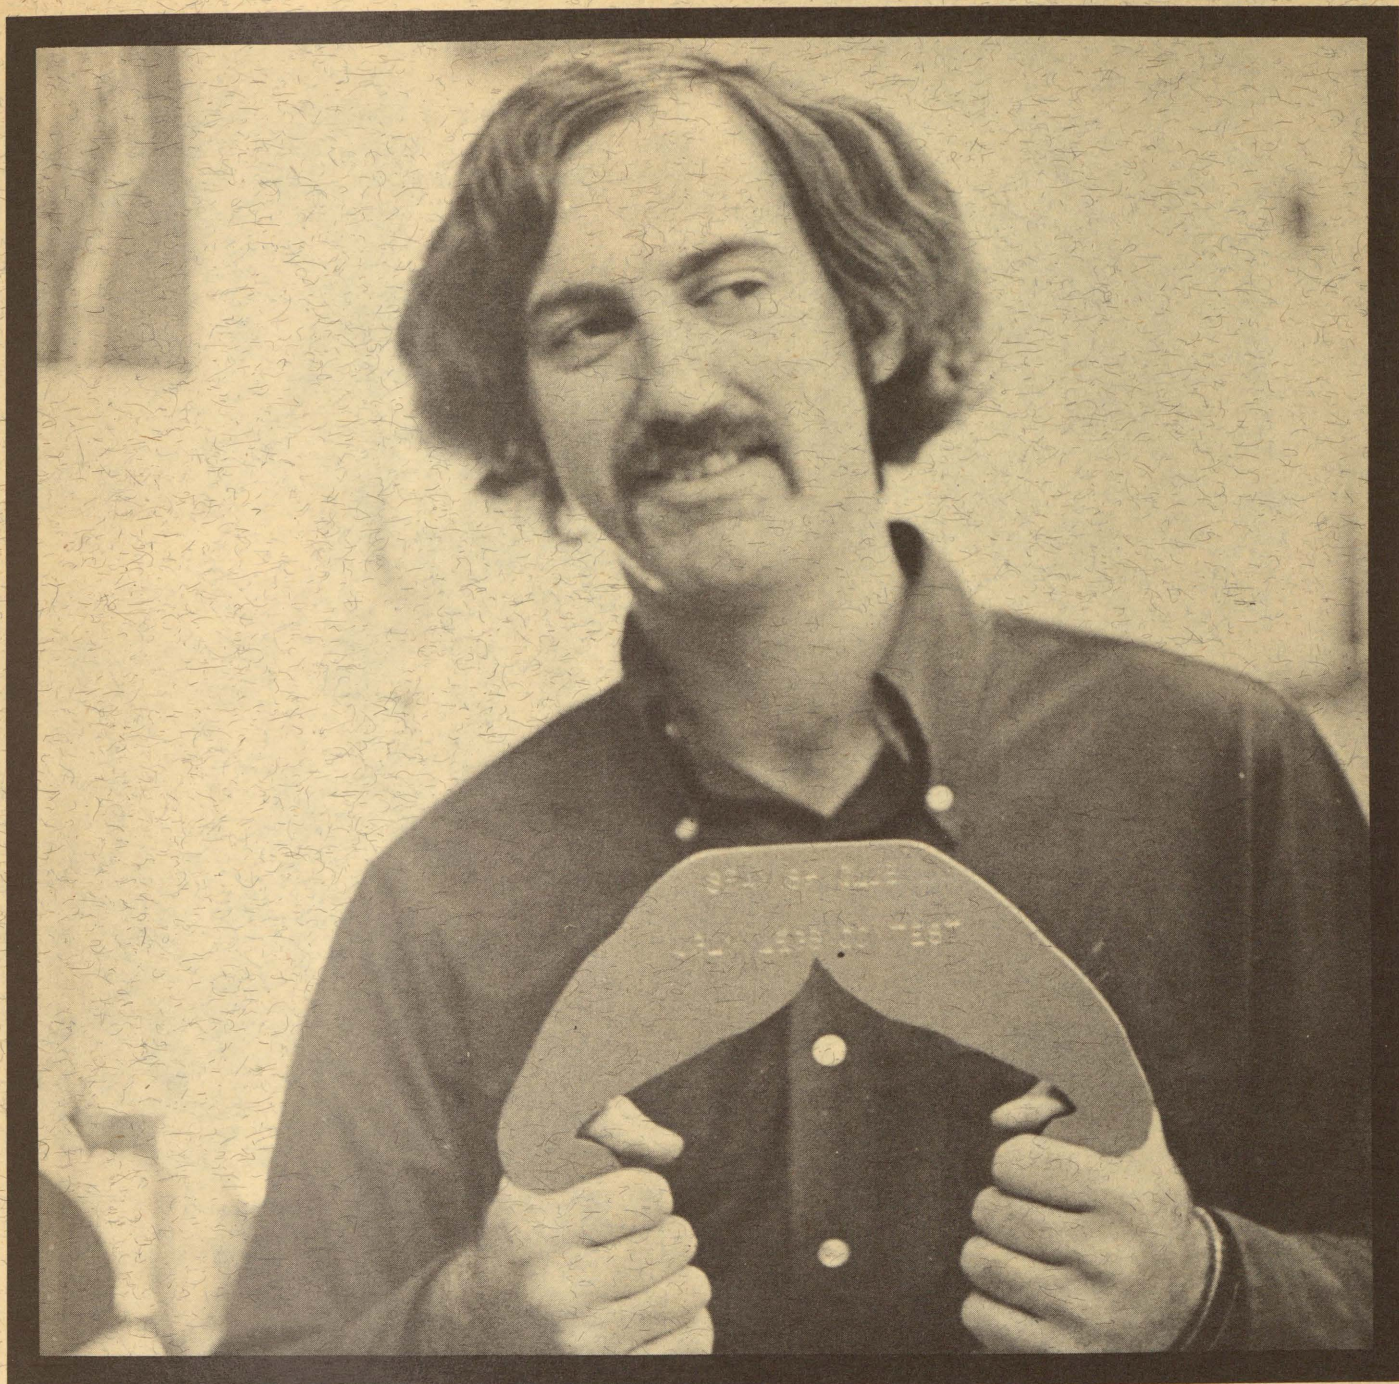

The image is older, the years start to show,
A voice asks the question . . . "where did the time go?"
A memory is fragile, always handle with care,
It's all that you've got to prove you were there.

Look over your shoulder, take one more glance
Then walk straight ahead, be glad for the chance.
Time like a thought is ever so brief,
Make it hope for the future . . . not memory or grief.

New Style for Chivalry

Education and experience were two characteristics which helped to make this year's CHIVALRY staff one of the most unique in the yearbook's history. The all-female group worked very hard to produce a class yearbook that would serve as a lasting remembrance for the year 1973-74.

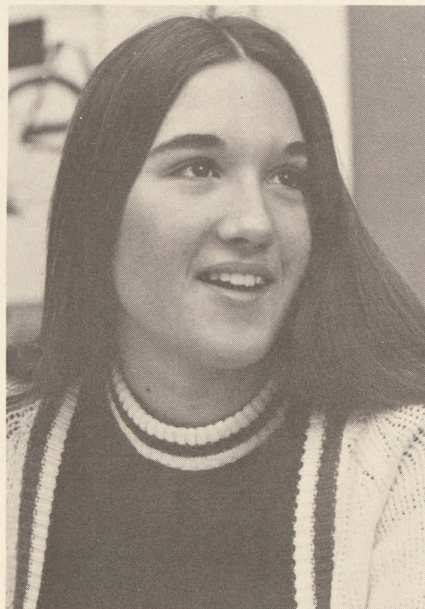

Under the guidance of Advisor Mr. James Leach, the staff strived to give the 1974 edition of CHIVALRY a new look. With more copy, improved headlines, and organized layouts the girls were able to attain a different style for CHIVALRY.

Camp Sparks Varsity Season

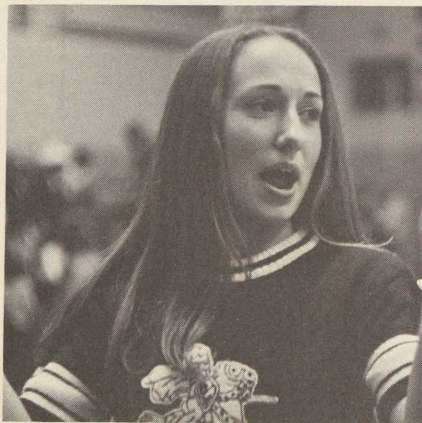

The Varsity Cheerleaders have done many things this year, but two events stand out from all the rest. In August the cheerleaders went to camp All-American for four days to learn new cheers and take part in competition. Secondly, the cheerleaders had the honor of cheering for the Detroit Pistons in Cobo Arena, February 20, 1974.

Press Club Puts Pizazz In Publications

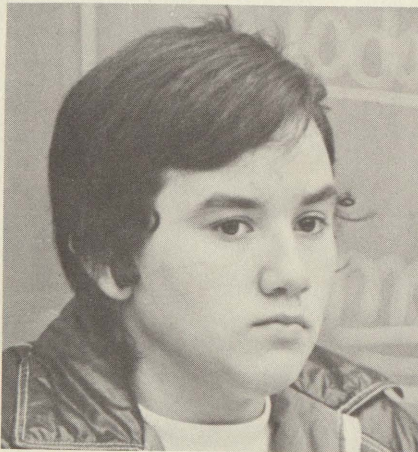

For being only a year and a half old, the Press Club has become one of the most wealthy (in both the financial and character aspects) organizations at Buena Vista.

The membership, composed of students in the Journalism classes, worked hard during the summer and throughout the year to raise money for trips, their annual banquet, and the fun-filled end-of-the-year PIZZAZ-A-RAMA.

By sponsoring a successful dance, blow-pop sales, and running the concession stand at the sports events, the Press Club was able to attain recognition and the satisfaction of being a major contributor to the school.

One of their goals for their class was to raise money for their treasury. Helping out the class were their advisors, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Lee, Mr. Burgman, and Mr. Crosby. Some of their money raising projects included apple and candy sales.

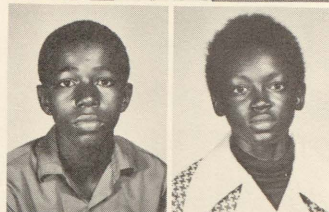

The freshmen were represented on Student Senate by Gigi Conway, Bonnie Brickel, Teresa Cadena, Leanne Quellet and Cheryl Rogoszewski, with alternates Vicky Klepinger and Amy Kramer.

Where There's Football There's Girls?

Powderpuff football proved to be a popular sport this year with both the Junior and Senior girls. After several weeks of hard practice, the two teams finally met, and the victory went to the Seniors, 30-0. Coaches for the Junior girls were Mr. Hetherman and Mr. Bischoff. The Senior girls were coached by Mr. Becker.

Statistics Staff Keep Media Informed

Three B.V. students don't attend football and basketball games just to watch and enjoy.

Karen Lemmer and Robin Kramer keep a record of individual scoring, rebounding, rushing and passing during the games. Cindy Abler then has the job of typing these records and from there they inform the news media of these statistics.

Queen Shiela Reigns Over 1973 Homecoming Festivities

Under threatening skies in October Queen Shiela Robinson and her Court witnessed homecoming activities which included the Seniors winning the float competition for the third year in a row. And the football team went down to defeat at the hands of the Commanders from Eisenhower. On the following night the cafeteria was the scene for the Annual Homecoming Dance.

Finally school's out. Time to hit the open road. The Knights are ready for back-packing and hiking along Michigans fabulous hiways. Sturdy hiking boots, tough jeans, water repellent wind breakers start our gals out looking sharp and feeling comfortable—with fishing poles along, tents to pick out, camp gear to select, Morleys is waiting to give you a hand. Stop in along the trail.

This is your page. If, due to the brevity of this journalism course, we have left your picture out of all but the formal shots, then we would like to extend our sincerest apologies and request that you place your own photo in the space provided at right.

Even if you haven't been left out, place your best pose in space #1.

Next, go down to the bottom left-hand corner of this page to the crowd shot and paste an appropriate-sized picture of yourself there. This insures you that no one will think of you as someone who didn't fit in with the action.

Once you have established yourself in your rightful position in the year; you may go on to finish the other tension-relaxing activities included on this page. The draw-and-color in space #2, your favorite pin-up to be placed in space #3, and your own private area of white space (#5) to be used as you wish — auto-graphs, doodling, or even an essay. GOOD LUCK!
